OGDEN NEWS. OFFICIAL LIST OF NOMINATIONS FOR MUNICIPAL OFFICERS OF SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

Ogden Office, 524 Utah Loan and Trust Building. Telephone 14.

Orden, Nov. 1.

A Republican Boomerang.

A morning paper yesterday charged the Democrats with fraud in connection with the registration of voters, and with the registration of voters, and mamed the First and Second wards as the ones in which the padding of the lists was particularly in evidence. The fallacy of this is shown by the fact that the registry agents in these wards, with two exceptions, are Republicans, and the Democratic workers would be unable to commit fraud there if they wanted to. No one who knows Billy Butcher, O. P. McDowell, D. M. McKee or Dave Murro would accuse them of consorting with the Democratic padding registration books—with Democratic names—and if there has been any fraud committed there it must be by the Republicans themselve.

Mrs. Parmley Dead.

Mrs. Parmley Dead.

At 5 a clock your day morning Mrs.

O. A. Parmley ded at her residence, 739 Twenty-fifth street, of pneumonia, after a brief siness. Mrs. Parmley was one of the most widely known and popular women of Orden. She has been, ever since her residence in Ogden, a leader in church and society circles, and one of the foremost spirits in all movements for charity. She was a sister of H. C. Higelow, president of the Ogden
State bank.

The date of the funeral has not vet been definitely decided upon, but will likely occur Sanday.

Micfortunes of the Soldier.

Misfortunes of the Soldiers.

The passage of the Fertleth infantry, The passage of the Fertleth infantry, from Fort Riley, Kan, through Utah was yesterday fraught with many troubles. While coming down a hill near Eche their train crashed into a freight, damaging many of the cars, but luckils none of the soldiers were seriously burt. Cars, were sent out from Ogden to take the place of the damaged ones, and the train pulled into the city. At the stock yards a licutemant took his boose out to exercise him, was thrown off and received a broken color bone. His wounds were dressed and the train proceeded westward.

Sale of Public Lands.

Saturday, Nov. 11, the state board of land commissioners will offer for sale land commissioners will offer for sale at the Weber county count house in Ogden, 18,600 acres of public lands ly-ing in Weber county, and including the precincts of Burch Creek, Warren, North Ogden, Huntsville, Lane City, Hooper, Liberty, Eden, Harrisville, Hot Springs and some lands lying along the middle or south parts of the Ogden river. Most of this land is suitable for grazing purposes, although much of it would make good farming land, lying in a position to be easily irrigated.
